SEMINAR REGISTRATION TERMS

If you want to attend a Digatron seminar

Please inform us in writing about your intention to attend a Digatron seminar. Simply use our online or fax form as seminar registration. Since the attendance per seminar is limited, we recommend to send us your registration as early as possible. Digatron reserves itself the right to call off a seminar if the required minimum number of participants is not reached.

Confirmation of your registration

You will receive a written confirmation of your registration that ensures your participation in the requested seminar. Along with this confirmation you will get the seminar schedule and a detailed description of how to get to the seminar place.

Seminar location

The place where the seminar takes place will be determined in dependence of the nationality of the seminar applicants. Standard seminars are usually hold in Aachen, Germany. Furthermore, we offer special customer-tailored seminars which can be hold on your premises.

Seminar rate

The seminar rate for standard seminars is charged for each participant and includes supporting documents and refreshments during breaks.

Cancellation by the seminar participant

Please inform us immediately if you are prevented to attend the seminar you applied for. No rate will be charged, if we get your written cancellation not later than two weeks before the seminar begins. If we receive your cancellation later, 50% of the seminar rate will be charged. The total seminar rate will be charged in case of non-attendance without prior written cancellation or discontinuation. You are allowed to confer your attendance reservation on another person.

Hotel reservation

Please tell us if we shall make hotel reservations for you. We will send you the hotel address details and a location along with the confirmation of your participation. The costs for hotel accommodation are at the seminar participant's expense.

Further information

Please contact Mrs. Rianne van Rooijen (Email: Rianne.vanRooijen@digatron.de or Phone: +49 241 16 80 950) for further information.
